

The Three Battlegrounds Study 6-13-11

Part Two: The Battleground of the Church

Chapter 12 – Repairers Of The Breach

Fill in the Blanks

1. True Christians from all _____ share an expectation commonly known as the _____ of the church (see I Thessalonians 4:16).
2. Before we are “caught up” to meet the Lord, there will be an _____ season of _____ in which the living church of Jesus Christ, like a _____, makes “_____” (see revelation 19:7).
3. In this unparalleled season of _____, while we will not become _____, we shall realize a new _____ of _____ of the _____ in which Jesus Himself walked (see I Thessalonians 3:11-13; Ephesians 5:26–27; Philippians 1:9-10).
4. The result of this new spiritual _____ will be a new level of _____.
5. In the place of _____ and _____ will be _____ and _____.
6. _____ will return to the citywide church.
7. The _____ and _____ we see today between _____ will be identified as _____, which will be _____ of before Jesus _____.
8. Christians have not _____ nor _____ against the enemy’s _____, which have _____ believers to accept _____ and _____ in the church.
9. True _____ of the Lord Jesus will be known for their _____ and holy _____ for one another --- not merely in their _____ local assemblies but within the context of a _____ church.

10. It is highly _____ that the scriptural term for the _____ is called the “_____” (II Thessalonians 2:1; Matthew 24:31).

11. What ultimately will be _____ in our gathering together _____ to the Lord will be _____ by a _____ gathering together of His _____ on earth.

12. “He who does not _____ with me _____” (Matthew 12:30).

13. The Son of God is not _____ with the _____ divisions in His _____!

14. The Lord _____ to _____ those pastors who _____ to build their _____ without _____ together to build _____.

15. To them He says, “I am about to _____ to you for the _____ of your _____ (Jeremiah 23:2).

16. In the tenth chapter of John, the Lord makes His _____ clear: there shall be “one _____ with one _____.”

17. He _____ that it is the _____ nature which “_____ [the sheep] and scatters them”; and it is the _____ nature which allows the _____ to occur.

18. “Then I _____ will gather the _____ of My flock and they will be _____ and _____. I will also _____ up _____ over them and they will _____ them; and they will not be _____ any longer nor be dismayed, neither shall they be _____, saith the LORD.” Jeremiah 23:3-4

19. The _____ of the _____ Christian church will be _____- _____ to the Lord Jesus; they will be _____ to _____ together His _____ and under that anointing shall be “_____ and _____.”

20. Indeed, right now, in the context of _____ ourselves and _____ our hearts to His will, we are _____ in being _____ together.

21. We will be a _____ and _____ sheepfold, meeting in different _____ but baptized into one _____.

22. God needs people who, when they see a _____ in the citywide _____ wall, will go up into the _____ and _____ the wall so that the church will _____ in the day of _____.

23. In every _____, _____ and _____, each of us needs the other _____ if we are going to stand in the day of battle.

24. If you are truly “_____,” without a hint of _____ you will seek _____ to be a _____ to other churches.

25. Your _____ love will _____ out _____.

26. You will _____ the _____ of ways through which Christ _____ in the church.

27. If a church in your city _____ to and _____ Jesus as their Lord and _____, then that church is _____ to complete God’s _____ in the city.

28. Do not come with an _____ to _____ or _____, but to _____ and _____.

29. If we do not _____ to His _____, we will be _____ to _____ against the _____.

30. The _____ between us must be _____, the walls _____, and we must learn to _____ in the day of the Lord.

31. You have to be an _____ who “stands in the _____.”

32. _____ be the _____ and _____ that others are _____ for.

33. “Those from _____ you will _____ the ancient ruins; you will _____ up the age-old foundations; and you will be called the _____ of the _____, the _____ of the paths in which to _____.”

(Isaiah 58:12)

The Three Battlegrounds Study 6-13-11

Part Two: The Battleground of the Church

Chapter 13 – God’s Army of Worshipers

Fill in the Blanks

1. It is an important _____: the hosts of heaven are _____ armies.
2. Indeed, no one can do _____ who is not first a _____ of God.
3. Time and time again the line is _____ between those who “_____ - _____ the _____ and his _____” and those who _____ God.
4. In the last great _____ before Jesus _____, the _____ of every man’s life shall be _____ upon a scale of _____.

Answer these questions please:

5. How must true worship emerge?

6. What prevails in much of Christianity today? _____
7. What happens to the soul that is not protected by true worship?

8. What does the Lord know about the heart that will worship Him in the wilderness of affliction?

9. Without true worship of God, what happens to our spiritual warfare?

10. Regardless of the battle you are fighting or circumstance, what happens if you are a true worshiper?

11. What is created through worship during warfare? _____

12. The soul is the combination of what three things? _____

13. What does the enemy come against in the church, generally speaking? _____

14. Who we are today is the sum of what? _____

15. Francis Frangipane says that memory is _____

_____.

16. Why can our natural minds not forget certain incidents in our lives? _____

17. How has our soul been shaped? _____

Fill in the blank

18. Although the _____ of our lives are _____,
our _____ to those events can still be _____.

19. We cannot _____ the past, we can put our _____ upon the
“_____” as an act of _____.

20. A worshipping _____ truly allows God to _____ the soul.

21. The _____ through which the Lord _____
Himself, even into our past, is our _____ and _____ of Him.

22. When we are given to _____ Him, all that we have _____ through in life is _____ and _____ in that love.
23. The _____ which safely _____ us through the _____ of adversity is _____.
24. If you are “_____” God (Psalm 84:4), your worship of God will _____ the negative _____ of the enemy into “a spring” of sweet _____ waters.
25. We were _____ for God’s _____.
26. But as the days of the _____ draw near and the _____ at the end of this age _____, those who have been _____ solely for the _____ of God will come _____ in the _____ and _____ of the Son.

Next Week’s Reading Assignment: Chapters 14 and 15